My Word!

Dorothy Larimer

IT'S HARD to believe that Joe Stone is dead at 39. As one of hundreds of persons whose lives were enriched by their acquaintance with Joe, we mourn his passing. He had solid communication with people, loved teaching and loved his students. He was a talented artist in his own right but rejoiced in the accomplishments of others. Vital, alive, energetic, Joe loved life. It seems a shame he had such a short time to enjoy it.

DAVID HEATH celebrated the opening of his new Life Insurance Diversified office in Albany Square by having an open house Friday afternoon. Invitations listed a dual celebration: one, to toast and christen the facilities, and two, to spend a quiet moment in memory of the opening of the Railway Suspension Bridge in Niagara Falls, which took place on the same date 113 years ago.

GOLLY GEE WHIZZ! A "big" newspaper finally took note of the "little" Albany Times. On Monday of this week, an Oakland columnist mentioned our long-standing head on the library column: "What's New Between the Covers." The author of the column, Rosemary Paine, has been dying because nobody has caught it in all these months.

CONGRATULATIONS to Rick Phelps, sales manager of H. L. Moore Chrysler-Plymouth, who won a five-day trip for two to Bermuda for individual volume of sales. He leaves March 19.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL AFS Breakfast Sunday morning at Cornell school. The committee estimates attendance at about 700. The food was excellent.

FRED IRVIN, 65, of Oakland loved to bowl. He had had a couple of heart attacks and his doctor advised against bowling, but Fred told the people at Albany Bowl that if he had to go, he'd just as soon go while bowling. Monday noon he collapsed on the lanes. He was pronounced dead at Herrick hospital.

ALBANY STUDENTS TEST HIGH IN STATE PROGRAM

Assemblyman Leroy Greene of Sacramento, chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, released reading test results for grades 1, 3, 6 and 10 from the mandatory state-wide testing program.

According to the scores released for the grades tested, Albany students did significantly better than the state-wide average and were either first or second in standing by comparison with all districts over 1,000 students in Alameda County.

Credit for the success of Albany students in the state-wide test in large measure goes to the competence of the teachers in reading instruction; to the Board of Education which has encouraged the use of improved teaching techniques such as i/t/a reading, listening centers, instructional materials not normally available from the state; and to a community that consistently has given its support to maintaining a quality educational program for its children and youth.

"Albany children might be expected to do well on standardized tests. The ability of Albany students tends to be above average," stated Kenneth M. Forry, Superintendent of Schools, "but there are a number of unique features in the Albany schools which contribute to this success. The relatively smaller class size and the split reading session allow teachers to spend more instructional time with each child. Adequate instructional materials are provided and teachers are encouraged to use their professional competence. Our remedial reading teachers at each of the schools catch incipient reading problems and seek to apply appropriate methods for correction."

"The excellent elementary summer school program contributes to the success of our children, not only in reading but in other subjects. All this is made possible because of the understanding and continued support the schools have received from the citizens of Albany."

BAND BOOSTERS

"The professional staff responsible for the program in the Albany schools under the leadership of the Board of Education, is dedicated to the idea of continuing to provide the best possible educational program for children and youth, seeking constantly to try new materials and new methods to the end that a more effective job can be done with young people."

"William Woolworth, Director of Instruction for the Albany schools, together with teachers and principals have been testing new materials, using innovative techniques and individualizing instruction, all of which we feel influence the higher test scores achieved by Albany children."

Mayors Approve Alternative BART Financing

Alameda County Mayors' Conference, realizing that the 75-mile Bay Area Rapid Transit system must be completed and that it will be up to the three counties involved to finance the deficit, last Wednesday in Hayward approved a priority list of ways to raise the funds.

Top preference of the mayors is raising the tolls on the Dumbarton and Hayward-San Mateo bridges as well as the Bay Bridge.

If this is not feasible, mayors approved, in order of priority: a toll hike plus an increase in gasoline sales taxes; toll increase, gas sales tax and raise in in-lieu vehicle taxes, and toll increase plus in-lieu vehicle tax raise. Albany Mayor Richard Clark made the motion.

Mayors also agreed to urge BART officials to guarantee feeder bus lines to the areas not directly served by rail lines.

The position of the conference was presented at a meeting in San Francisco Thursday called by Mayor Alioto.

Oakland Mayor John Reading facetiously suggested a three-county lottery as the "only way" to finance the deficit.

Supervisor Joe Bort outlined how much could be raised by the various proposals. He said the proposed in-lieu tax could raise $12 million annually, which would pay for the $150 million deficit in 20 years. The one cent gas tax hike would raise $13-15 million a year. It would take a 20-cent increase in the Bay Bridge tolls, he said, adding that a half-cent sales tax increase "may be more than enough."

Police, Residents Corner Man Here

A 22-year-old Berkeley man who attempted to shoplift at Lucky's March 6 didn't have a chance.

First, Mrs. John Phillips of 521 Evelyn caught the man in her driveway, but he fled. She called police. Later Alice Erickson of 536 Talbot reported seeing a strange man in her back yard. Police Officers George Phillips and Gerald Martin and Sgt. Glenn Thompson gave chase and with the assistance of bystanders cornered the man in the 700 block between Stannage and Kains. He was taken in custody on the roof of 721 Kains. Bail was set at $200.

OPEN LETTER

On Monday evening, March 18, 1968, at 8 p.m., at the regular City Council meeting there will be a "Public Hearing" concerning the granting of a permit for a debris hauling business in the 1000 block of Peralta Avenue. This concerns all the residents of Albany. This type of thing would start Albany down the road to a second class neighborhood.

This is a request to those who desire to keep our city, the pleasant attractive, residential city that it is, to come to the Public Hearing to let your voice be heard.

Dr. Dave Smith Speaker at Albany High PTA

Dr. Dave Smith

Dave Smith, M.D., M.S., Director of the Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic, will be guest speaker at the March 19 meeting of the Albany High School PTA in the Little Theater at 8 p.m.

Dr. Smith's timely topic will be "The Generation Gap and How to Close It." A graduate of U.C. School of Medicine, Pharmacologist and Toxicologist, Dr. Smith states: "Every teenager must be considered a potential hippy. Youth is in rebellion against certain values they have been taught. Health services, like love, should not be conditional. We can earn their respect by telling them the truth."

At 28, he enjoys their music and speaks their language. He argues that scientific facts are the best antidote to drug myths. Look Magazine in an article dated August 8, 1967, referred to him as "a young doctor with a crusade."

The public and especially students are invited to come to this very informative program. A short business meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. The program will start at 8 p.m. sharp.

El Cerrito Youth Arrested

A 16-year-old El Cerrito boy, who first apparently attempted to enter living quarters at Ellis-Olson mortuary and then goofed on an attempted burglary at the Orientation Center for the Blind, was arrested on San Pablo Avenue Tuesday by Police Sgt. James McLeod and Officer Jim Simmons.

About 1:30 p.m., May Ellis Olson entered the rear door of the mortuary and spotted a young man stealthily going upstairs. She asked him what he wanted and he said he was looking for a bathroom. She directed him to the service station, but noted he did not go there. She called police, describing the youth.

A short time later a call was received from the Blind Center reporting a young man had entered a dormitory room, where a blind man was dozing. The blind man, awakened by the sound of footsteps, called out and heard the intruder running away. He started to follow but stumbled on a radio, apparently dropped by the young man on the stairs.

Others at the Center had seen the youth wandering around the grounds and the description matched that provided by Mrs. Olson.

Twenty minutes later, the police officers apprehended him as he walked along San Pablo. After he was taken into custody, they found he had been carrying an Asian India curved knife with five-inch blade in a scabbard attached to his belt!

He was positively identified by Mrs. Olson.

COUNCIL DIRECTS MAYOR TO ATTEND SACRAMENTO HEARING ON AB159

Albany City Council Monday night directed Mayor Richard Clark to appear in Sacramento yesterday in support of legislation to reimburse Albany for the education of children from University Village (AB159).

Councilman H. F. Call objected to calling the legislation a "tax relief" bill because there is no guarantee that its passage would result in relief to the Albany taxpayer who foots the bill for educating children in tax-free University Village. He voted in favor of Clark's trip to Sacramento, however.

Clark was also authorized to represent the city's stand on methods of financing the Rapid Transit deficit at a County Board of Supervisors meeting Thursday. He was commended by fellow councilmen for his leadership in the Mayors Conference in switching emphasis from in-lieu tax on vehicles to raising tolls on bridges as a means of financing the deficit (separate story).

Council voted to contact the Griffenhagen-Kroeger firm to begin a survey of the accounting system of the City of Albany.

A representative of State Women's Compensation presents the city with two checks, $2,207.18 and $5,270.05, representing savings earned on premium because of the city's good safety record. The smaller check was the balance of $8,913.61 saved in the period ending June 3, 1965.

Council went on record supporting Richmond's project saving the East Brothers Island Light Station as an Historic San Francisco Bay landmark.

A request by Stanley C. Johnson Alarms for permission to install the system in the Police Department was referred to the Chief of Police.

Referred to a work session with Planning and Zoning Commission was Administrative Officer James B. Turner's request for a review of the General Plan.

Arthur Jenne of 618 Masonic was named to the Masonic Undergirding committee, replacing A. J. Sturgeon, who resigned.

Council authorized Turner to levy assessments for San Pablo Avenue Lighting District to those whose payments will be due May 1. Many have paid the lighting district assessment in full, he reported.

Turner explained the preliminary final plan for Solano Avenue Beautification, stating that the committee has reviewed it, made suggestions and is planning another meeting in a week or so.

Dario Meniketti congratulated Council for their many years of supporting fund-raising activities in Albany, including the Times in his remarks of appreciation.

The meeting adjourned at 8:50 in memory of Ulric Grey, Albany city engineer from 1943-46, who died recently.

Councilman Lewis Howell was absent because of illness.

Artist Joe Stone Dies; Funeral Services Thursday

Joseph Mayes Stone, 39, professional artist, Albany Adult school art teacher, and coordinator of the first Albany Art Show and Merchants' Bazaar died of an apparent heart attack in San Francisco Saturday.

Funeral services will be held at Ellis-Olson mortuary at 3 p.m. Thursday, March 14, with the Rev. Boyce Van Osdel of Oakland officiating. Interment will be in Sunset View cemetery.

A native of Columbia, Mo., Mr. Stone received his degree in art from the University of Missouri. He was a Navy veteran of the Korean War and had lived in California 12 years.

The family lived on Creston Road in Berkeley during the six years he operated The Studio at 1230 Solano Avenue, Albany. More recently they have lived in Orinda.

As coordinator for the original Albany Chamber of Commerce Art Show and Merchants' Bazaar Aug. 23-26, 1963, Mr. Stone made many friends among Albany residents who worked with him. About that time he joined the faculty of the Albany Adult school. His classes in oil, water color, drawing and sketching were among the most popular offered by the Adult school. He had taught one of the classes last Thursday evening.

Mr. Stone also designed and built stage settings, did advertising layouts and murals. One of his murals is at Clancy's in Jack London Square. The banners of the Albany and Thousand Oaks Times are his work.

Survivors include his wife, Shirley, and three children, Bill, 15; Laura, 11, and Carl, nine, at the family home at 216 Camino Sobrante in Orinda, and a sister, Mary Crofts of Wichita, Kan.

Pallbearers will include Charles Osbourne, Al Grey, Dean Saylor, Harry Nealy, John Amaral and Bill Frisbie.

The family requests memorials directed to Alameda County Heart Fund.

DeMolays Observe Week March 17-24

El-Cerrito-Albany chapter, Or- der of DeMolay, will join more than 2,500 other DeMolay chap- ters in local observances of In- ternational DeMolay Week, March 17-24.

The annual, week-long event celebrating the anniversary of the Order, is designed to acquaint the public throughout the free world with the purposes and ac- tivities of the organization.

The theme selected for the 1968 observance is "Young Men on the Go!" The DeMolays are planning events ranging from so- cial activities to civic service pro- jects to emphasize the program.

Mark Bricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Bricker and Master Councilor of the local chapter, said that the 1968 theme was chosen because "it is indicative of the growth and activities of El Cerrito-Albany chapter." He stated that in addition to provid- ing worthwhile activities for a young man, "the Order builds character and leadership quali- ties."

The Chapter Dad and Advisor for the local chapter is James S. Hinds.

The Order of DeMolay was founded in 1919 by Frank S. Land and nine teenage youths in Kansas City, Missouri. Since that time, nearly three million young men between the ages of 14 and 21 have become DeMolays.

Famous Senior DeMolays in- clude the late Walt Disney, Olympic decathlon champion Bob Mathias, newscasters Walter Cronkite and Paul Harvey, Charles Finley of the Oakland "As", and innumerable congress- men, senators and governors.

Police Officer's First Aid Training Saved Life

"I thank the Lord I am living today and that Officer Coyne knew first aid and saved my life," said Anjeanette Gilmer, 19, of Oakland.

Mrs. Gilmer was critically in- jured when she was struck and dragged by a train at the Gilman and Masonic crossing last Octo- ber. Called to the scene of the accident, Police Officer Edward F. Coyne skillfully put to use the Red Cross Standard First Aid techniques he had learned just a year before as a police trainee.

Quickly applying a tourniquet to her badly mangled leg, Officer Coyne checked the bleeding that might otherwise have cost her life. He has been awarded the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit for his life saving act.

Mrs. Gilmer, despite the loss of her left leg as a result of the accident, is now able to take full care of her two year old son, Andre, and is studying typing and shorthand in her spare time.

The basic principles of emer- gency care, such as those used by Officer Coyne, will be taught in free Standard First Aid courses conducted throughout March in all Berkeley and Albany fire stations under the auspices of the Berkeley chapter, American Red Cross. This community wide First Aid Special Training (FAST) program is offered as a special public service during March, "Red Cross Month."

(Note: Mrs. Hazel R. Freeman of Albany risked her life when she pushed Mrs. Gilmer out of the path of the train. But for her quick actions, which have been highly commended, Mrs. Gilmer would have been killed outright. Ed.)

Soil Engineer Describes Hazards of Unplanned Fill

At the Albany Bay Committee meeting last week, Ed Margason, a soil engineer and a geologist, described the hazards of unplanned and unengineered bay fill operations. Margason, of the firm of Clyde, Woodard, Sherard and Associates, has had extensive experience analyzing old bay areas and showed color slides illustrating problems encountered. He emphasized the need for planning from the very beginning in order to avoid costly and perhaps insurmountable problems. First, the nature of the underlying bay mud must be established. Its consistency, depth and configuration will determine the placement and nature of the fill material.

Second, the placement of available fill material (sand, trash, demolition rubble, etc.) should be planned according to the nature of the bay floor and the future use. Mr. Margason cited difficulties Berkeley has encountered with the proposed Junior College site. When fill materials are mixed, differential settlement occurs which necessitates supporting buildings on piles. Piles cannot penetrate concrete chunks. If a fill is too heavy or is built up too quickly it exerts pressure on the mud floor which can cause lateral movement resulting in mud waves at the edges of the fill. He described the prism method of fill (filling within trenches) as one way to avoid the problem of uneven settlement.

Third, knowledge of the intended use of the filled land should guide the fill operation. Will it have to support a parking lot or a public building? Where will any piles be placed? How can the inevitable settlement of the fill adjoining pile-supported structures be minimized?

Other problems such as the liquidation of sand fills under the strain of an earthquake were vividly illustrated in slides. Trash dumps can generate gases which suddenly ignite.

A rubbish or sanitary land fill operation can be successful if it is properly planned. Much has been learned from past experience and many troubles can be avoided by use of modern engineering procedures and proper planning.

Brod Art At Library

Collages by Berkeley artist, Charlotte M. Brod, are on exhibit at the Albany Library through the month of March.

Mrs. Brod was born in Silesia, Czechoslovakia. After having lived in Turkey for 10 years, she and her family came to the United States in 1948, where they lived for a number of years on a farm in Nebraska and later in Ohio. For the past nine years, Mrs. Brod, her husband and four children have been living in Berkeley at 1636 Spruce Street.

Mrs. Brod began painting seven years ago and in the last three years has developed her own style in tissuepaper collage. This is her ninth one man show. She also participated widely in many art festivals. Her work is in many private collections in the Bay Area, Nebraska and Massachusetts.

PLANS MOVING AHEAD FOR ITALIAN FESTIVAL

The committee for the first annual March of Dimes Italian Festival Saturday night, March 23, report plans are almost completed.

The dinner-dance will observe the 75th anniversary of the tilting of the Leaning Tower of Pisa, Chairman Dorothy Davis said.

Price of tickets for the spaghetti dinner and dancing to the music of Benny Meltzer and his orchestra are $2. Only 300 of these tickets will be sold. Those who wish to come to the dance only may attend for $1, payable at the door.

Reservations for tables of 20 may be made by groups, according to Irene MacWilliams, ticket chairman. She may be contacted at 525-7065. Her assistant is Fern Luoma, 526-1311. Tickets are available at the Albany Times.

A group of Little League Mothers, headed by Joy Allen, is preparing the spaghetti dinner. Corrine Brennan, chairman of food procurement, has reported donations of almost everything needed including the wine, which is being collected by Dario Meniketti.

Lorrene Baum is chairman of special tickets for an RCA color television from Albany TV; a man's or lady's Lanco watch from Omega family of fine watches, donated by Call Brothers Jewelers; trip to South Shore for two donated by Alex Gaeto of Peerless Stage Lines, and two flight bags donated by Bill Barbee of El Cerrito Travel Agency.

Colorful placemats, ash trays and posters have been donated by Italia Airlines. Eleanor Miller has obtained these extra items plus the South Shore trip and flight bags.

Those planning to attend have been urged to make reservations early.

LETTERS

Editor, the Times:

As co-chairmen for this year's "Fish Fry" we would like to express our thanks and appreciation to the whole community for their support. No matter how hard committees work, how good the food may be, how fast the service or how deserving the cause, no venture which must rely on the spirit present in its community would succeed without it.

The citizens of our town must have this spirit in over-abundant amounts for it pours it out in support of project after project many times each year; year after year.

The Albany High Band Boosters realize this, and would like to let the community know that we are grateful that we live in this kind of a city.

To you all we say, thanks again.

Scouts, Dads On Snow Trip

Thirteen Boy Scouts and seven of the Dads of Troop 19 enjoyed skiing and snow sports at Camp Brae last weekend. Excellent snow conditions prevailed and a rope tow was available at the camp. As a special treat for the boys, the fathers cooked all of the meals and cleaned up afterward.

Scouts making the trip were: Greg Bachman, Todd Bachman, Ed Bent, Bryan Fletcher, Dennis Gilreath, Mark Hulbert, Kurt Jenkins, Russell Heath, Mike Irwin, Dave Kelley, Jim McKenna, Spencer Smith, Malcolm Smith. Dads going on the trip were: Newell Bent, Bill Gilreath, Bob Irwin, Max Kelley, Frank McKenna, Nic Nicolls and Ralph Smith.

Last month, Troop 19 enjoyed a snow camp-out where the only shelter was the small troop tents. Troop 19 meets at the Northbrae Community Church, 941 The Alameda, Berkeley, every Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Annual Report

Police Cases Up 8 Per Cent in 1967 Over '66

The total cases handled by Albany Police Department jumped from 7,546 in 1966 to 8,153 in 1967, an increase of eight per cent, according to the annual report.

All categories showed an increase except non-moving violations, which decreased 61 per cent in 1967. Police Chief Ralph Hansen said this is because policemen do not have time to be in the street making that type arrest.

Patrol arrests are up four per cent. Cases involving persons and property, up 2.4 per cent; miscellaneous public reports, up 16.5 per cent; penal code violations, up 6.4 per cent; city ordinance violations, up 4 per cent; inspector's cases, up 31 per cent; accidents, up 32 per cent; persons injured, increased 19 per cent; moving violations, 1.5 per cent, and in the first full year of the parking Enforcement Officer, parking violations went up 100 per cent.

The 23-person department traveled 145,315 miles last year, using 16,358.8 gallons of gas in the line vehicles they operate.

There were 76,838 calls handled in the police radio, 762 persons were jailed and 557 homes of violating residents were watched.

Under patrol arrests: drunk, 39; outside warrant, 139; traffic, 2; battery, 10; checks, four; Albany warrants, 110; narcotics, 52; malicious mischief, seven; petty theft, 10; ABC Act, 21; drunken driving, 30; disturbing the peace, 6; auto theft, 29; peeper, one; hit-run, four; burglary, 17; runaway, 14; robbery, 12; tip sheet dropping, nine; grand theft, two; assault with a deadly weapon, two; murder, two; indecent exposure, two; insanity, 12; contributing to the delinquency of a minor, four, among others.

Police made 56 hospital runs in patrol cars and 146 by ambulance. They investigated 30 dog bite cases, went on 167 fire calls and 74 inhalator calls, assisted the Highway Patrol in 33 cases, investigated 63 injury and 222 non-injury accidents and found 123 driving with suspended licenses. They were called on 29 coroner cases, impounded 143 autos. They investigated 93 domestic situations, comforted 103 persons who were frightened and escorted two persons home.

They found 163 doors unlocked in the business areas. There were seven attempted suicides and seven successful suicides.

The inspectors' report shows one attempted murder, one kidnapping, three attempted rapes, nine robberies of people, five robberies of businesses, 80 residence burglaries and four business burglaries. Thirty-five auto burglaries and 40 grand thefts of autos are reported as are 126 petty theft, 126 forged and fictitious checks, one bigamy, two child molestings and one willful abuse of a child.

Peace, Freedom Party Reports on Meeting

A resolution made at the second meeting of Albany Peace and Freedom party not to attack the McCarthy campaign but instead issue no statements about it failed by a vote of 11 for and 28 against.

According to David Cohen, spokesman for the group, the consensus was that McCarthy represents an attempt to channel dissent and head off a mass exodus from the Democratic party. Following his defeat in August, he might be able to lead some of his supporters into the Johnson camp, PFP members believe. They also question his stand on Vietnam and on the Latin America situation.

It was agreed to support Huey Newton's campaign for Congress in 7th Congressional district and to uphold the slogan, "Free Huey." The campaign for congress was thought to be a good idea because it is in line with PFP policy that blacks should be allowed to determine their own destiny and with a candidate such as Newton whose organization, the Black Panthers, represents thinking in the ghettos at this time, it would be possible to take a step in this direction. Another reason is that Newton has become a symbol of racial injustice and by carrying a campaign for him, PFP will educate people on the nature of racism, Cohen said.

Because of the large number of registrants in the Albany group, they expect 10 or more delegates to the convention March 17 in Richmond. Delegates will be named at the meeting March 14.

In forged or fictitious checks, restitution was made in the amount of $1,948.97.

Eighty-five people were injured in traffic accidents in the city in 1967. One accident was fatal, involving a motorcycle and a parked car on San Pablo Ave. One hundred and fifty-two people were arrested in 284 accidents.

Three hundred and ninety-one juveniles, 311 boys and 80 girls, came to the attention of police last year. Local police handled 234 of the youths, turned 30 over to other agencies and 127 to juvenile court or probation departments.

Of the 152 live-dogs picked up, 13 were reclaimed by owners and 139 were turned over to Berkeley Humane Society. Of the 116 live cats picked up, one was reclaimed and 115 turned over to BHS, the Animal Control Officer reports. Thirty-five dead dogs and 73 dead cats were picked up, 41 dogs and eight cats were impounded for bite observations.

Albany police files added 544 criminal fingerprints in 1967, making a total of 9,423 on file. They took 534 criminal mug shots during the year, hiking the total in the department to 7,023. Two hundred forty-four tip sheet peddlers are on file at the department. The Identification Bureau took 14 latent fingerprints during the year, photographed 50 crime scenes and one accident scene, plus 19 miscellaneous photos.

On Dec. 31, 1967, there were 10,821 bicycles registered with Invitations are in the mail for the March 29 Flower Ball being sponsored by Capella Auxiliary for programs of the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Alameda County.

The elegant bids make use of the Flower Ball theme clear. Across the front of the invitations is a sketch showing one of Oakland designer Richard Tam's extravagantly floral creations from his spring collection, which will be shown at the dinner dance at Castlewood Country Club, Pleasanton.

any junior branch member or the Office of the Branches, 5116 Grove Street, Oakland.

Invitations promise that Tam's couture collection for spring will be shown in "an unusual production by his flower children."

The Flower Ball is open to the public, said Mrs. Madigan. Reservations are being handled by Mrs. Brian Cooke. Information on securing reservations may be obtained by calling the office of Capella Auxiliary president, Miss Mary Valle. The number is 533-4032.

Fire Losses Up in 1967-- Fire Department Report

In the annual report issued by Albany Fire Department, it is indicated that Albany's property loss in 1967 was $90,624, compared to $23,401 in 1966.

Property endangered by fire in 1967 was valued at $1,255,200, however, making a percentage loss of only seven per cent. This was one point above the 1966 percentage loss of six per cent, involving $360,000 worth of property endangered by fire.

Firemen responded to the same number of alarms both years—419.

The department traveled 6,410 miles and used 1,597 gallons of gas last year. This involves six vehicles plus the ambulance. They handled 938 radio calls.

A breakdown of calls other than fire shows 13 auto accidents; seven each smoke scares and malfunctioning hot water heaters; five each electrical, gas leak, wires down; six gas tank leaks plus one or two of the following: pilot lights out, child locked in bathroom, unauthorized burning, odor investigation, cat on pole, sump pump malfunction, utensil left on stove, overheated motors, broken steam lines, leaking refrigerator gas, child's arm caught in chair, adding machine or trash barrel, broken gas meter, checking odors, person falling down, removing ring from finger, hand caught in window, faulty fire-place, roof leak, TV antenna down, reflection, wash machine malfunction, flooded area or entangled clothes line.

Inhalator calls included possible heart attack, 30; fainting and breathing difficulty, 12 each; stroke, seven; person fallen down, five; cancer, four; convulsions, drunk and epilepsy, two each; relapse, transportation to hospital, hyperventilation, post-operative effects and attempted suicide, one each.

Fire summonses ranged from 13 for overheated cooking oils through unauthorized burning, 10; cigaret, nine; grass fire, eight; children with matches, six. Three or less calls each were for objects placed over floor heaters, smoking in bed, incinerator, friction, sparks, utensil left on stove, overheated broiler, clothes dryers, fireworks, brazier, spontaneous, electrical, etc.

Twenty-two calls were for a variety of automobile defects, 26 were for people locked-out and 27 for malicious false alarms. There were five accidental false alarms, 12 police assists, eight water leaks, and seven calls to wash down spilled concrete on the street.

August was the peak month for inhalator calls. Most calls for Fire Department services were received about 4 p.m. and between 10 and 11 a.m.

Predominate ages for those needing resuscitator squad were 70 years and over and one year and under. The leading causes were heart conditions and convulsions. Fifty-one per cent were females and 49 per cent males.

Seventy people were taken to the hospital by ambulance and seven by private ambulance. Ten calls were unnecessary. Eight persons were dead on arrival of the Fire Department unit; 17 were received dead on arrival at Herrick hospital.

Four subjects were left in care of the doctor and eight were left in a recovered condition. One unusual resuscitation involved a dog. The picture of that operation is the cover photo of the attractive report book.

Also included in the report is the ongoing training program of the department, the number of inspections, a report on equipment and various activities of the 23-member department, headed by Fire Chief Gerald D. Browne.

Do not interfere with firemen at the scene of an emergency. It is not only common sense but it is illegal. Let the pros do their job. They are trained for these emergencies. If they do need help wait until they ask for it.
